Dean, College of Design

Remarks

Larry Bruton, BArch '67

Ellis F. Lawrence Medalist

Larry Bruton is a storied architect with an over four-decade career at ZGF Architects. While there, Bruton played a pivotal role in shaping the firm's national and international reputation. He joined ZGF in 1971, became a partner in 1987, and was instrumental in expanding the firm to Seattle, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C. His influence extends beyond the region, with major projects including the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle and the Crown Center "Link" pedestrian bridge in Kansas City. These projects, along with many others, have solidified Bruton's place among the leading figures in the architecture world.

COLLEGE OF DESIGN

Mission

The College of Design is dedicated to advancing the understanding, value, and quality of visual culture and the built, natural, and social environments through excellent and distinctive teaching, research, and creative endeavors. Grounded in a unique multidisciplinary structure, the College of Design is a diverse learning community of students, faculty, and staff members. We seek to enhance the lives of individuals and communities through endeavors that stem from intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and broad inquiry, rooted in the inter-relatedness of theory, history, and practice. In support of this mission, the College of Design affirms the following values:

Excellence

Supporting and celebrating a culture that promotes rigor, encourages risk-taking, and challenges standards in creating, composing, and presenting ideas.

Open Discourse

Fostering the open exchange and critique of ideas in an environment that welcomes a diversity of views.

Inclusiveness

Actively encouraging the presence and participation of individuals with differing backgrounds, experiences, and points of view.

Cooperation

Working together in shared efforts to teach, learn, understand, and create.

Interdisciplinary Experience

Engaging multiple disciplines to expand our perspectives and enrich our teaching, research, and creative practice.

Responsibility

Recognizing our accountability for the impact of our actions on environmental, social, and cultural systems.

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya Ilihi, the traditional indigenous homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, descendants are citizens of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon, and continue to make important contributions in their communities, at UO, and across the land we now refer to as Oregon.

We express our respect for all federally recognized tribal nations of Oregon. This includes the Burns Paiute Tribe; the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians; the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation; the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; the Coquille Indian Tribe; the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians; and the Klamath Tribes. We also express our respect for all other displaced Indigenous peoples who call Oregon home.
